Headline:
Heavy, thundery rain and showers.

Today:
A band of heavy, thundery rain clears northwards through the morning, with the strong winds easing. This followed by sunny spells before locally torrential showers or thunderstorms break out through the afternoon. Feeling warm in any sunshine, and humid too. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Tonight:
Another warm and muggy night for most. Rather cloudy with heavy, thundery showers easing, although some likely to persist throughout the night. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Sunday:
Rather cloudy with some sunny spells developing. There will be further heavy showers or thunderstorms with hail possible. Warm and rather muggy for most. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Showers will be more scattered on Monday, with lengthier sunny periods. However, Tuesday will see more showers again, with these likely heavy and thundery. Further showers on Wednesday.
